Shelf wooden animal hooks

January 10, 2011 by Lucy · 1 Comment

I fell in love with these gloriously simple wooden hooks as soon as I saw them. I think it's important for children to be independent from an early age and mounting a set of coat hooks at child height under the adult ones is always a good way to achieve this and, of course, encourage tidiness – always a good thing. The fox, rabbit and cat motifs are super-cute (but not so kiddified that they'd look out of place in a stylish hallway) and a total bargain at £22.95, from the ever-fabulous Shelf. PS: See also the wonderful Bear Face mirror, £19.95.
